6 Standard Condition #4: You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.

Supporting Evidence: It is alleged that Misty Beck violated the terms of her supervised release, by being untruthful to the probation officer regarding her employment situation, on or about June 3, 2025.

On May 3, 2025, Ms. Beck commenced employment with Taco Bell. On June 3, 2025, during an office contact with Ms. Beck, the undersigned officer inquired into how her job was going with Taco Bell. At that time, she informed the undersigned officer that she had quit her job with Taco Bell, putting her 2-week notice in, stating that June 1, 2025, was her last day at work. She indicated she quit because her hours were not being increased and she believed she secured employment with Amazon.

On June 4, 2025, the undersigned officer contacted Taco Bell. The manager advised that Ms. Beck had not appeared for work in 3 weeks. She advised that Ms. Beck was technically still employed but Ms. Beck had reported having COVID then pneumonia. They had requested that Ms. Beck provide documentation to verify her inability to come to work, but she had failed to do so. Ms. Beck had not reported any recent illnesses to the undersigned officer since she started working for Taco Bell and as noted, she indicated that she had put in her 2-week notice and last worked on June 1, 2025.

7 Mandatory Condition #3: You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.

Supporting Evidence: It is alleged that Misty Beck violated the terms of her supervised release by failing to appear for a random urinalysis, on or about May 27, 2025.

Ms. Beck is enrolled in the random drug testing program at Pioneer Human Services (PHS). She is expected to call the testing line daily to determine if she is required to appear that same day for a urinalysis.

PHS advised that Ms. Beck failed to appear for a urinalysis on May 27, 2025.

The U.S. Probation Office respectfully recommends the Court to incorporate the violation(s) contained in this petition in future proceedings with the violation(s) previously reported to the Court, and that the Court issue a warrant.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed on: 06/05/2025
